THE SOCIETY FOR THE

Independent Puss ?.. A curfed-up cat, an arm-chair and a fireside speak to all men of home. The cat is the homiest of pets and yet it has retained more of its independent nature than has man's other home companion, the dog.

Cats need more understanding than dogs. Actually, Pussy should be called self-reliant rather than independent; cats are capable hunters and know how to take care of themselves. They are philosophical and brave, but not rash. They do not look for trouble but handle it well when it comes their way.

Understand your cat, think for her, feed her regularly, be good to her, and you will have a pet that will return all of the love and kindness you can bestow.

WILL THE POLICE SAFETY CHECK RULE YOUR CAR OFF THE ROAD?

THIS MONTH THE BELLEVILLE CITY POLICE as part of an intensive National Safety Campaign will stop automobiles, buses and trucks and check the operating condition of brakes, steering, windshield wipers, lights, horn and tires.

THIS CAMPAIGN, which has been authorized in an effort to curb the mounting toll of highway and traffic accidents will have the full support of every responsible motorist.

IF YOU HAVE any doubt about the operation of these items on your automobile we urge you to have them checked by us immediately. If repairs are necessary they can then be carried out as soon as possible.

REMEMBER, IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AS A MOTORIST TO KEEP YOUR AUTOMOBILE SAFE AT ALL TIMES.

Imagine two companies carrying on the same kind of business in exactly the same way. One carries a heavy burden of income tax-about 23 times as much as in 1939, 17 the other doesn't pay a cont.

Corporation, its earnings are derived from buringselling, processing, manufacturing, servicing, employment of labor, etc. It receives income from real

But it claims its earnings are not profits because it is a co-operative.

A Royal Commission has declared that co-operative do make profits and recommended that these profits be taxed. But it has also recommended that profits paid out to castomers as "patronage dividends" be allowed as an expense in computing taxable income:

Patronage dividends are not an expense of doing business

We are not stracking the principle of paying "patronage dividends", provided such dividends are distributed from profas safer the payment of income tax. But if "patronage dividends" are to be allowed as an ordinary expense of doing business, to be deductible in computing starble income, the door will Individuals are faced with heavier Income Tax.

If "parroused thrideads" are allowed as an expense in computing taxable income, the power of force are recomposing taxable income, the power of force are corporation. In such a case, the whole structure of corporation income tax would break down, thus throwing the entire burden of income tax—on the individual.

Revision of The Income Wat Tax Act, insofar as it concerns Co-operatives, will come before the current session of Parliament. It is of smoot importance session of Parliament. It is of smoot importance were supported to the session of Parliament. It is of smooth to the session of the session

The Income Tax Payers Association has two objections to the principles of co-operative trading. It should be the right of every Canadian to trade as he desires. Our objective is to ensure that so exterine of business unloads its three of iscome teachers and gust of the our on other business or on individual income ter heart.

TATTLE-TALE

Said I: "You mustn't homeward run, To tell what Ellendy has done. Long years ago, when I was young, I had to learn to hold my tongue. And, when your dad was small, like you lie had to learn that lesson, too. To keep your friends, you'll surely fail If you become a tattle-tale.

"Of what you hear and what you see Porgetful oft it's best to be. You won't be liked if round you go Proclaiming everything you know. All this I had to teach your Pa. 50, don't go running home to Ma. With bitter afriek and tearful wall. Don't be a little tattle-tale!

"Now-heed your grandpa! Hold you

"Now-heed your grandpat nous you tongue!
A bell is still not being rung.
If you persist in blurting out
The faults of others round about,
You may become, when older grown,
A tattle-tale more widely known,
And run (I make the warning solemn)
Some daily paper's gossip column."

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1946, Edgar A. Guest) JUNE BRIDE

Lovely bride, your vows repeating, Soon you'll hear the words that bind

you,
Then receive the tender greeting
Of the friends who stand behind

you.

Now you cannot see us staring,
Misty-eyed and lumpy-throated,
For your welfare deeply caring
As the wedding lines are quoted. We who've lived to learn their meaning:
Worse or better, richer, poorer,
On each other's courage leaning,
Wish the joys of life were surer.

Soon you'll turn, the altar leaving, See us, gathered to remind you: As today, when you are grieving.

Look! You'll see us still behind you.

"MY DICTIONARY DOESN'T REALLY EXPLAIN BRISK

"Sure, I know what the dictionary meaning of 'brisk' is. But that wonderful Lipton flavour gives me an absolutely new idea of brisk.

Yes, when experts say the Lipton flavour is brisk, they mean a flavour so tangy, spirited and lively ... so exciting and exhilarating . . . that it makes, commonplace teas seem flat and wishy washy. There's always good luck in a cup of Lipton's. Switch today to the tea with the lively, brisk flavour.

TURNING YELLOW!

Keeping white clothes leatingly inhits is the easiest thing in the world. You simply BLIB them every time you wash them—not in the washing itself but in the last rines weter. Frequent washings will never find them not turn them yellow if you add a swish or two of Rickeit's Blue to the fixed rines on wash day. It cours so little (a cent or two a month) and it makes such a difference in the aments where of ware white them.

JUST FOLKS By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1946, Edgar A. Guest) EVENING ERRAND

When she meets you at the door
With a: "Darling, yo you mind
Running over to the store.
For some tea—our special kind—
Sugar, butter, loaf of bread?"
Let no bitter word be said.

Though you've had a busy day
And had hoped to settle down,
Rest a bit, and get away
From the noises of the town,
Turn yourself about once more
And go, gladly, to the store.

Oh, 'twas not so long ago— When I thought my labors o'er I was often greeted so: "Darling, hurry to the store! Do this favor small for me. I forgot to order tea."

I was cross about it then, But I'd give my soul once more Just to hear her say again:
"Darling, hurry to the store.
Get a loaf of bread for me!"
Oh, how light of heart I'd be!

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1946, Edgar A. Guest) BIRDS AND MEN

Birds are wise enough to be Tenants of a sheltering tree. Given song, instead of words, They can get along as birds.

None can gather more of food Than the commonest of the brood. None has ever grown so skilled As a better nest to build.

Birds may quarrel, now and then, Over treasure, as do men, But on equal terms they buy Life's requirements till they die.

Men are different! One can boast He is cleverer than most, Richer gifted in the arts. Often that's where hatred starts.

When is a long distance call necessary?

You are the best judge. We think every call is important. That's why we try our best to put it through quickly.

But more people are making more Long Distance calls than ever before—even more now than in the war years.

We are building new equipment and getting it into service as fast as we can. But right now there's often more traffic than we can take care of the way we'd like, and delays do occur.

We'd appreciate your help a little while longer. This summer, especially, please continue to ask yourself: "Is this Long Distance call necessary?"

The Silent Torce

In this year 1873, the Canadian West was a vast, little-known territory and its administration appeared to be an almost insuperable teak. Uncertain communica-tions with Eastern Canada complicated the many problems of law enforcement and control.

Faced with this almost impossible situa-tion Prime. Minister Sir John A. MacDonald displayed a vision, faith and purpose incredible even today. A small group of 300 handpicked men was formed and to it was entrusted the enormous task of bringing law and order to this unsettled tract of 300,000 square miles in secordance with his high bleast and great pur-pose. How this little band of men justified his fitth and vision is one of the proudest records in Canadian history.

of the prouceshistory.
Thus was born "The Silent Force"—a gallant body of men who formed the first of
Canada's famous North

If your troubles you'd forget,

Missing joys which once you had,
If you think your luck is bad,

How Mexican Peanuts Make Jobs for Canadian Machinists

Take a dollar bill out of your pocket and look at it. You have 35 cents of that dollar -or more-because of Canada's foreign trade. Without it, you would only have 65 cents, or less, instead of each dollar you now have. For at least one-third of Canada's national income is earned from Foreign Trade.

That is why it pays even to go short on goods we need now, to keep our customers in other countries happy . . . why it pays to put your best into any products you help to make or services you perform for export trade.

Your Trade Commissioners are stationed in 26 countries, and their job is to help Canadian firms sell our goods abroad . . . or buy goods we need from other countries. This Foreign Trade Service of the Department has head offices in Ottawa, where complete information is available to every Canadian business that buys or sells merchandise

But after all, their success depends largely on everybody doing his or her part to keep Canada's foreign customers satisfied in their dealings with us.

WE shall continue to distribute our produc-tion on a quota basis, playing no favourites.

This is what I heard them say: "Do you good to go away!
Throw your toothbrush in a grip.
Give yourself a pleasuse trip.
Finest tonic ever known
Is to go away—alone."

Bo I tried it, just to see
What could strangers do for me.
Could I banish all that's been
Merely with a change of scene?
Could I come to peace of mind
Leaving all I love behind?

Would it do me good to stand Would it do me groot to statut Gazing at the sea and land Having no one near to share What I found of beauty rare? Is there any splendor shown Man can best enjoy alone?

Now Um back, and this I've learned; Joy is not with self concerned. Better be at home, by far, Where the friends and loved ones are, Sharing all that's your to own, Than to wander off alone...

community, creating extra business, added income. Even if you never see a tourist you benefit from his spending just as surely as Tom the taxi man.

Let's protect our valuable tourist business. This year of all years, we must make our American neighbours especially welcome so that they will take back with them pleasant memories of Canada's courtesy, kindliness, real neighbourliness.

In so doing we'll be building up a priceless backlog of goodwill. We'll be helping to make the tourist industry still higger and more prosperous in the years to come:

Give them a friendly GANADIAN welcome!

PREVENTS TURNING YELLOWI

There is ONE way and only ONE way to keep white clothes white—a swish or two of Reckitr's Blue in the last rinse on wash-day.

Remember, the blueing operation to be effective must be separate from the washing. The Reckitr's rinse takes only a moment or two and it makes proven lovely white things always saying. WHITE.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST (Copyright, 1946, Edgar A. Guest) MARTINE

Purple martins scorn the earth.

Just above, they choose to wing,
Pinding all they hold of worth

Where there is no man-made thing.

Save the house in which they rest, Man has little to bestow. For their food — that daily guest— Swiftly to the winds they go.

Others often tread the ground, Cope with men and natural fees, Fight to keep what they have found And in anger come to blows,

Lucky martins, born to fly

Round and round and round again,
Fashioned so you live and die

High above the ways of men!
